Matthew Ward
C/o 206 Marylebone Road

Dear Matthew,

I have pleasure in confirming the details of our offer for the following position.

Position: Research Designer.

Job Band: B1

Reporting to: Sarah Woods.

Organisation: NCR, Financial Solutions Group.

Based at: 206 Marylebone Road Head office, London NW1 6LY.

Start Date: 30th May 2000.

Hours of Work: 9.00am - 5.00pm Monday - Friday. You may be required to work such reasonable hours as the needs of this particular position requires.

Annual Leave Entitlement: 21 days (pro rated from the actual start date and for part-time positions) in any one calendar year, in addition to 3 nominated Company days plus 8 Statutory days.

Remuneration: £26,000 per annum (there are no overtime payments attributable to this position).

Your next salary review will be in March 2001 subject to satisfactory performance.

You will be eligible to participate in the FSG Employee incentive plan which has an on target payment of 5% of base salary. However in practice, the award can range from 0% to 10%. This will be calculated and a payment made (if any) during the 1st quarter of 2001 and will be pro-rated for permanent employees length of service in 2000.

Company Car: In your capacity as Research Designer, you are eligible for a Company car, Group B. This car may be used within reason for private journeys subject to conditions and in accordance with instructions issued from time to time by the Company. You should acquaint yourself with the terms under which the car is insured, and should take care to ensure that it is not used in circumstances outside these terms. You must also ensure that you are eligible to drive within the UK subject to requirements set by the Driving Vehicle Licensing Authority.

The vehicle provided may not necessarily be new should there be one readily available from within the fleet.

At the level of the above position, the choice of car is based on a benchmark lease value of £319 per month. Alternatively you may opt to have a car allowance equating to £3,700 per annum subject to taxation, which will be paid in 12 monthly installments directly into your bank account and will form part of your salary payment.

Medical Insurance
Cover:

The Company will subscribe for Medical Insurance coverage for you (and your spouse/partner/family). Full details will be sent to you under separate cover.

Flexible Compensation:

FSG's "flexible compensation" gives you the opportunity to tailor your pay and benefits to match your individual needs and preferences. The total value of all elements of your compensation will remain the same, but you will have the opportunity to influence the range of benefits you receive. Full details of the plan will be sent to you under separate cover.

Pension Plan:

On joining the Company you will be eligible to become a member of NCR Scotland Pension Plan, which includes 1) a Final Salary Plan, 2) The Money Purchase Plan, and 3) The Death Benefits Plan. If you elect to be part of the plan, you will contribute a minimum of 3% (and up to 5%) of your pay to the Money Purchase Plan. NCR will also pay into the fund at a rate of 50% of the level at which you choose to pay. You will receive more details under separate cover.

Dental Plan:

On joining the Company you will also be eligible to receive National Dental Plan coverage. Further details will be issued to you upon commencement of employment.

Smoking Policy:

Your attention is drawn to the Company's No smoking policy. Smoking is not permitted at 206 Marylebone Road or any of the other Company premises.

This appointment is subject to the Terms and Conditions of Employment, set out in the attached documents, which have been prepared to conform with the provision of the Employment Rights Act 1996. Please could you sign and return a copy of the Terms and Conditions of Employment form.

Also enclosed is a document entitled "Conflicts of Interest Policy" which includes a questionnaire. You are required to familiarise yourself with the details of the "Conflicts of Interest Policy" and complete and return the questionnaire.

If you have any questions concerning the details of this appointment, please do not hesitate to contact a member of the Human Resources Team telephone 020 7725 8342.

Yours sincerely

STATEMENT OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

R
Solutions Group Limited

EMPLOYER: NCR Financial Solutions Group Limited, 206 Marylebone Road, London NW1 6LY (The Company)

EMPLOYEE: Matthew Ward

DEPARTMENT: FSG Knowledge Lab

DATE OF ISSUE: 12th July 2000

CONTINUITY:

Your employment with the Company will commence on 30th May 2000.

JOB TITLE

You are employed as Research Designer on a full time and exclusive basis. This is not a job description and may be changed from time to time. You will be informed in writing of any change. Your duties are such as may be assigned to you by the Company from time to time and you may be required to observe all reasonable rules and regulations adopted by the Company in connection with the operation of its business and to carry out to the best of your ability all instructions given by the Company.

The Company shall be entitled to direct that you perform no duties and to direct that you shall not enter or remain on any (or any specified) premises of the Company and any such direction may be given subject to any condition with the Company in its discretion may determine.

7. HOURS

Your normal working week is 35 hours, Monday to Friday, 9.00am to 5.00pm, with a lunch period of 1 hour. You may be required to work such hours as are reasonably necessary for the proper performance of your duties, for the avoidance of doubt you will not be paid overtime for such additional hours.

8. REMUNERATION

Your salary is £26,000 (twenty six thousand pounds) per annum, paid monthly ("Salary") paid by Bankers Order on the 16th of each month for the current calendar month subject to adjustment for any lost time or National Insurance deductions while on sickness absence, in the previous month, or for any unauthorised absence.

The Company shall be entitled pursuant to the Employment Rights Act 1996, at any time during the employment and upon its termination (howsoever arising) to deduct from the Salary and/or any other sums due to you, any sums owed by you to the Company.

9. HOLIDAYS

In addition to Statutory Public Holidays, paid holiday entitlement is calculated according to your length of service during the year. Subject to the approval of your manager this may be taken in advance at any time during the holiday year (1 January – 31 December), however, up to 20% of your entitlement may be carried over to the subsequent year, but must be taken by 31 March. On joining the Company, holiday entitlement for the first year of service is as follows:

MONTH OF JOINING – DAYS OF HOLIDAY ENTITLEMENT (First Year)

January	21 days	April	16 days	July	11 days	October	6 days
February	19 days	May	14 days	August	9 days	November	4 days
March	17 days	June	12 days	September	7 days	December	2 days

This assumes that the employee commences on the first working day of the month. Staff joining at the middle a month or later are not entitled to holiday for that month.

Additional entitlement is given for service up to 25 years as shown below:

1 to 5 years service	21 days holiday per annum	Over 16 to 20 years service	24 days holiday per annum
Over 5 to 10 years service	22 days holiday per annum	20+ years service	25 days holiday per annum
Over 10 to 15 years service	23 days holiday per annum

N.B. Previous broken service with the Company does not qualify for extra holidays for service.

This assumes that the employee commences on the first working day of the month. Staff joining at the middle a month or later are not entitled to holiday for that month.

If and when you leave the Company and you have exceeded your holiday entitlement, your final pay will be reduced by the appropriate amount.

10. SICKNESS AND INJURY BENEFIT

At The Company's discretion, non-obligatory payments will be made to you during sickness absence or injury. In order to be considered for company sick pay the following procedures must be complied with:

- Inform your manager immediately by telephone.
- Complete an Employee Statement of Absence From Work.
- Provide a medical certificate if your illness lasts more than 7 days (including Saturday, Sundays and Statutory Public Holidays).
- Send a medical certificate for each subsequent week of continued illness.

All sickness payments by the Company take into account Statutory Sick Pay (S.S.P.) If you are excluded from S.S.P. but eligible for National Insurance Benefit (N.I.B.) NCR will deduct the standard rate of N.I.B. from your pay. (In the case of married women the benefit deducted will be that which they would receive if they were making full contributions). Payments will be based on a service-related scale. Up to 3 months service allows a maximum payment of 2 weeks basic pay. Between 3 – 6 months service allows a maximum of 4 weeks basic pay. After 6 months services payments are related to length of service. Any entitlement in respect of continuous absence through sickness or injury will be subject to frequent review. A Personal Accident Insurance Scheme covers employees in the event of personal injury whilst on Company business other than at their normal place of work or travelling between home and their normal place of work.

11. PENSION PLAN MEMBERSHIP

Membership to the NCR Scotland Pension Plan is optional for all full-time and part-time permanent employees provided you are not within five years of normal pension age. Full details of the Pension Plan are contained in the Pension Plan explanatory document.

12. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

You will not, during your employment with the Company or at any time thereafter, without written permission of the Company, disclose to any person outside the Company, or to any person within the Company other than a person whose province it is to know the same, any information relating to the Company's business which is of a confidential nature or disclosure of which may damage the interests of the Company. Also you will not use for any purpose or for purposes other than those of the Company, any information which you may acquire relating to the Company's business. On termination of your employment you will deliver to the Company on your last working day (without keeping any copies) any documents or other media relating to the business of the Company.

13. OUTSIDE SUBMISSIONS

It is most important that the Company shall not be placed in a position of confidential trust or relationship with respect to any unsolicited disclosure of information received from anyone outside the Company. In order that all matters relating to outside submission of information may be handled in a legally correct manner, any idea or suggestion submitted to you by a customer or other third party concerning technical developments or products including software, should be forwarded by you unanswered to International Patents Department, Head Office.

14. INVENTIONS ETC.:

You will as soon as reasonably possible disclose confidentially to the Company and to no one else full particulars of all inventions, improvements and designs made or discovered by you, whether alone or jointly, whilst in the service of the Company, which relate to or are capable of use in connection with any of the products made, sold or hired by the Company or the manufacturer thereof, or any of the Company's business processes.

The rights as between the Company and yourself in any invention as specified above, shall be as set out in the Patents Act 1977.

In respect of any invention as specified above, unless it has been established that such invention does not belong to the Company, the Company has absolute discretion as to whether any application for a patent or other protection shall be made on such invention, and has the right to abandon any such application and any patent granted thereon.

The Company shall pay a monetary award to you in respect of any invention belonging to the Company which has been made by you, either alone or jointly, and in respect of which a patent application has been filed. Such award shall be in accordance with the Invention Recognition and Incentive Plan as set out in the Corporate Patent Policy.

In consideration of your salary or wages, any industrial property rights other than inventions arising from work done by you in the course of your duties as an employee of the Company and which relate to the business of the Company shall belong exclusively to the Company. Such industrial property rights include, but are not limited, to copyright, industrial and artistic designs, trade marks, trade secrets, know-how and other confidential information.

You will at the request and cost of the Company, whether during or after you employment with the Company, execute any document and do any acts necessary to enable the Company or its assigns to obtain patent protection in any part of the world in respect of any invention as specified in paragraph a) above, unless it has been established that such invention does not belong to the Company, and to obtain registered design, copyright or other protection in respect of industrial property rights as specified in paragraph e) above.

15. DISCIPLINARY AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

The Company has formulated and operates disciplinary and grievance procedures. These procedures, which do not form part of your contract of employment, may be obtained from your HR Consultant or the Compensation and Benefits Manager, FSG.

16. PERFORMANCE ISSUES

The Company operates a procedure to deal with performance issues and to help and encourage other employees to achieve and maintain acceptable standards of job performance. This procedure, which does not form part of your contract of employment, may be obtained either from your HR Consultant or from the Compensation and Benefits Manager, FSG.

17. SUSPENSION

During your employment, the Company may suspend you from duty by notice in writing on full remuneration at any time and for such period as the Company thinks fit.

18. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITY

You will not engage in any other business activity for deal with any way with Company products or any similar products, except in the normal and proper course of your employment with the Company.

You will not either directly or indirectly be engaged in any other trade, profession or business that could in any way represent a conflict of interests with those of the Company. Where there is any uncertainty or possibility that a conflict of interest might arise, the prior written approval of the Company must be obtained before any such activity is entered into. A written application should be made to the VP HR FSG, who will arrange for your request to be considered.

STATEMENT OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Solutions Group Limited

It is strictly prohibited to receive any compensation (commission, prize, or whatever form it may take) from a third party (Leasing Company, outside Software House, etc.) for giving them NCR business of any kind generated in the course of our normal selling activities. Violations of this rule will be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal.

TERMINATION

If you wish to resign from the Company you must give [4] weeks notice in writing irrespective of your length of service. In certain exceptional circumstances the Company may waive this requirement.

Should the Company have reason to terminate your employment, you are entitled to receive notice:

SERVICE

NOTICE

More than one week but less than 5 years

4 weeks

More than 5 years but less than 6 years

5 weeks

Thereafter for each additional year of service an additional week's notice to a maximum of 12 weeks for 12 or more year's continuous service.

In cases of gross misconduct or dishonesty, it may be necessary for the Company to terminate your employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice.

20. CHANGES

Changes in the terms and conditions of your employment will be confirmed to you either by letter, general notice or by the re-issue or amendment of this document or any accompanying schedules.

21. BASIS OF AGREEMENT

These terms and conditions of employment, together with the letter of offer and the Company's rules and procedures formulate the basis of the agreement between you and the Company.

 Stage 1: Verbal warning - by appropriate Supervisor or Manager, who will record the warning.
 Stage 2: or formal letter: Written warning - by the Manager.
 Stage 3: Final warning - by the Manager. At this stage the employee will be informed by the Manager that any further occasion requiring disciplinary action may lead either to a reduction of bonus, suspension with or without pay, or dismissal.
 Stage 4: If further occasion arises the employee will be interviewed and the circumstances reported in writing, together with details of previous occasions and a recommendation to the employee's director. The director's decision will be sent to Personnel Resources who will write to the employee advising him or her of the decision and confirming the circumstances leading to it.
 If the offence is sufficiently grave, the Company reserves the right to take action without recourse to the full procedure. Examples of misconduct which may lead to disciplinary procedure, and if necessary suspension or dismissal without recourse to the full procedure are contained in the Staff Manual.
 All written warnings and reports will be recorded on either a Discipline Report Form or in a formal letter clearly stating that it is a written warning. The Employee will be required to sign in acknowledgement of a warning being given. The employee will be given a copy of the warning and an additional copy will be sent to Personnel Resources.
 At any or all of these stages the employee may be accompanied by a fellow employee of his or her choice.
17. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE:
 Stage 1: Any employee wishing to raise an issue in which he or she is directly concerned should take this up either verbally or in writing with his/her superior who will endeavour to resolve the issue within 5 days.
 Stage 2: If the grievance is not resolved at Stage 1, the immediate supervisor will complete a Report Form and pass it at once, with a request for a meeting to his/her Manager. This meeting will take place no later than 7 working days after that date.
 Stage 3: Failing settlement at Stage 2, the matter will be referred forthwith by the Manager concerned to his Director to resolve the issue raised.
 This procedure will apply unless some other procedure has been agreed with a trade union or other organisation of workers.
18. APPEALS PROCEDURE:
 If you wish to appeal against any decision taken against you or any personal grievance or disciplinary matter, then a written application should be made to the Director, Personnel Resources at Head Office, who will arrange for your appeal to be considered.
19. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES:
 You will not engage in any other business activities or deal in any way with Company products or any similar products, except in the normal and proper course of your employment with the Company.
 You will not either directly or indirectly be engaged in any other trade, profession or business which could in any way represent a conflict of interests with those of the Company. Where there is any uncertainty or possibility that a conflict of interest might arise, the prior written approval of the Company must be obtained before any such activity is entered into. A written application should be made to the Director, Personnel Resources, who will arrange for your request to be considered.
 It is strictly prohibited to receive any compensation (commission, prize, or whatever form it may take) from a third party (Leasing Company, outside Software House, etc.) for giving them NCR business of any kind generated in the course of our normal selling activities. Violations of this rule will be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal.
20. TERMINATION:
 If you wish to resign from the Company you must give one month's notice in writing irrespective of your length of service. In certain exceptional circumstances the Company may waive this requirement.
 Should the Company have reason to terminate your employment, you are entitled to receive notice:-
- | SERVICE | NOTICE |
|--------------------|---------|
| 1 week to 5 years | 4 weeks |
| 5 years to 6 years | 5 weeks |
- Thereafter for each additional year of service on additional week's notice to a maximum of 12 weeks for 12 or more year's continuous service.
 The Company may in certain circumstances determine to make payment in lieu of all or part of this notice period.
 In cases of gross misconduct or dishonesty, it may be necessary for the Company to terminate your employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice.
21. CHANGES:
 Changes in the terms and conditions of your employment will be confirmed to you either by letter, general notice or by the re-issue or amendment of this document or any accompanying schedules.
22. BASIS OF AGREEMENT:
 These terms and conditions of employment together with the letter of offer and the Company's rules and procedures formulate the basis of this agreement between you and the Company.
- AUTHORISATION:
 Signed on behalf of the Company _____ Position: H.A. Manger
- ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:
 I have read and understand the above terms and conditions and hereby acknowledge their receipt.

Dear Michael,

After recent discussions, I have pleasure in confirming the details of our offer for the following position:

Position: Research Designer.

Band: B1.

Reporting to: Sarah Woods, Head of User Experience Group, Knowledge Lab.

Organisation: NCR, Financial Solutions Group.

Based at: 206 Marylebone Road Head Office, London NW1 6LY.

Start Date: 25th January, 1999.

Hours of Work: 9.00am - 5.00pm Monday - Friday. You may be required to work such reasonable hours as the needs of this particular position dictate.

Remuneration: £29,000 per annum (there are no overtime payments attributable to this position).

Your first salary review will be in March 2000 subject to satisfactory performance.

You will be eligible to participate in the FSG Employee Incentive Plan which has an on - target payment of 10% of base salary. However, in practice, the award can range from 0% to 10%. Payment (if any) is made during the 1st quarter of the year following the year of measurement. Your participation in EIP is subject to the rules of the scheme. Details of the measurement criteria will be discussed with you should you decide to accept this offer.

Company Car: In your capacity as Research Designer in our Knowledge Lab, you are eligible for a Company car, Group B. This car may be used within reason for private journeys subject to conditions and in accordance with instructions issued from time to time by the Company. You should acquaint yourself with the terms under which the car is insured and should take care to ensure that it is not used in circumstances outside these terms. You must also ensure that you are eligible to drive within the UK subject to requirements set by the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency.

The vehicle provided may not necessarily be new should there be one readily available from within the fleet.

At the level of the above position, the choice of car is based on a benchmark lease value of £267 per month. Alternatively you may opt to have a car allowance equating to £3,700 per annum subject to taxation, which will be paid in 12 monthly installments directly into your bank account and will form part of your salary payment.

Annual Leave

Entitlement: 21 days (pro-rated from the actual start date) in any one calendar year, in addition to 3 nominated Company days plus 8 Statutory days.

Medical Insurance

Cover: The Company will subscribe for Medical Insurance coverage for you, your partner and dependent children. Full details will be sent to you under separate cover.

Flexible

Compensation: FSG's "flexible compensation" gives you the opportunity to tailor your benefits to match your individual needs and preferences. The total value of all elements of your compensation will remain the same, but you will have the opportunity to influence the range of benefits you receive. Full details of the plan will be sent to you under separate cover.

Pension Plan:

On joining the Company in this new capacity, you will be eligible to become a member of NCR Scotland Pension Plan, which includes 1) The Final Salary Plan, 2) The Money Purchase Plan, and 3) The Death Benefits Plan. The costs of the Final Salary part and the Death Benefits part are fully paid for by the company. You are required to contribute to the Money Purchase part. If you elect to join the Pension Plan, under what is known as the Defined Contribution element of the plan, you will contribute a minimum of 3% of your salary. NCR will match this with a further 1.5%, that is, 50% of your contribution. NCR matching at a rate of 50% of the level at which you choose to pay will occur up to a 2.5% NCR contribution. You can also pay additional voluntary contributions up to 10% - which would take your total contribution possible up to 15%. You will receive more details under separate cover.

Dental Plan: You will be eligible to receive National Dental Plan coverage. Further details will be issued to you.

Smoking Policy: Your attention is drawn to the Company's No smoking policy. Smoking is not permitted at 206 Marylebone Road or any of the other Company premises.

This appointment is subject to the Terms and Conditions of Employment, set out in the attached documents, which have been prepared to conform with the provision of the Employment Rights Act 1996. Please could you sign and return a copy of the Terms and Conditions of Employment form.

Also enclosed is a "Conflicts of Interest" questionnaire. Please complete and return the questionnaire.

Please could you sign this letter to confirm your agreement to this offer and return it to me at the above address. At the same time, will you provide details of your National Insurance number, the name, address and sort code of the Bank branch and the account number into which you wish your salary to be paid.

We are delighted to be able to extend this offer to you and hope very much that you will join us. If you have any questions you wish to raise, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me on 44-171-725-8585.

Yours sincerely

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- a) You will as soon as reasonably possible disclose confidentially to the Company and to no one else full particulars of all inventions, improvements and designs made or discovered by you, with or alone or jointly, whilst in the service of the Company, which relate to or are capable of use in connection with any of the products made, sold or hired by the Company or the manufacturer thereof, or any of the Company's business processes.
- b) The rights as between the Company and yourself in any invention as specified above, shall be as set out in the Patents Act 1977.
- c) In respect of any invention as specified above, unless it has been established that such invention does not belong to the Company, the Company has absolute discretion as to whether any application for a patent or other protection shall be made on such invention, and has the right to abandon any such application and any patent granted thereon.
- d) The Company shall pay a monetary award to you in respect of any invention belonging to the Company which has been made by you, either alone or jointly, and in respect of which a patent application has been filed. Such award shall be in accordance with the Invention Recognition and Incentive Plan as set out in the Corporate Patent Policy.
- e) In consideration of your salary or wages, any industrial property rights other than inventions arising from work done by you in the course of your duties as an employee of the Company and which relate to the business of the Company shall belong exclusively to the Company. Such industrial property rights include, but are not limited, to copyright, industrial and artistic designs, trade marks, trade secrets, know-how and other confidential information.
- f) you will at the request and cost of the Company, whether during or after your employment with the Company, execute any document and do any acts necessary to enable the Company or its assigns to obtain patent protection in any part of the world in respect of any invention as specified in paragraph a) above, unless it has been established that such invention does not belong to the Company, and to obtain registered design, copyright or other protection in respect of industrial property rights as specified in paragraph e) above.

Your employment with the Company is effective from.....your employment with your previous employer.....not applicable.....from..... does/does not count as part of your period of employment.

6. REFERENCES AND HEALTH:

Engagement is subject to:

- Satisfactory references
- Acceptance of the completed Medical History form
- A satisfactory medical examination, if required by the Company's appointed Doctor.

7. JOB TITLE: Research Designer

8. HOURS:

1 hour

Your normal working week is 35 hours, Monday to Friday 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. with a lunch period of.....Details of flexible working hours will be sent to you if applicable.

9. REMUNERATION:

Your salary is £29,000 per annum, paid monthly, paid by Banker's Order on the 16th of each month for the current calendar month subject to adjustment for any lost time or National Insurance deductions while on sickness absence, in the previous month, or for any unauthorised absence.

10. HOLIDAYS:

In addition to Statutory Public Holidays, paid holiday entitlement is calculated according to your length of service as it would be at 31 December of the current holiday year. Holidays for one year are earned on the basis of your months of service during the year. Subject to the approval of your manager this may be taken in advance at any time during the holiday year (1 January-31 December), however up to 20% of your entitlement may be carried over to the subsequent year, but must be taken by 31 March. The basic holiday entitlement after 1 years service with the Company is 20 days. On Joining the Company, holiday entitlement for the first year of service is as follows:-

MONTH OF JOINING - DAYS OF HOLIDAY ENTITLEMENT (First Year)

January: 21 days	April: 16 days	July: 11 days	October: 6 days
February: 19 days	May: 14 days	August: 9 days	November: 4 days
March: 17 days	June: 12 days	September: 7 days	December: 2 days

This assumes that the employee commences on the first working day of the month. Staff joining in the middle or end of a month are not entitled to holiday for that month.

Additional entitlement is given for service up to 25 years as shown below:-

1 to 5 years service	: 21 days holiday	over 15 to 20 years service	: 24 days
over 5 to 10 years service	: 22 days holiday	over 20 to 25 and over years service	: 25 days
over 10 to 15 years service	: 23 days holiday

Previous broken service with the Company does not qualify for extra holidays for service.

On leaving the Company you will be paid, in lieu of any holiday entitlement not taken on date of leaving at the rate shown below according to your length of service as at the date of leaving:-

1 to 5 years service	: 1.75 days per pay month	over 15 years but less than 20 years	: 2.00 days pay per month over 5 years but less than 10 years	: 1.83 days per pay month	over 20 years but less than 25 years	: 2.08 days pay per month
over 10 years but less than 15 years	: 1.92 days per pay month	25 years and over	: 2.08 days pay per month

Equally, if, when you leave the Company you have exceeded your holiday entitlement, your final pay will be reduced by the appropriate amount. Entitlement and payment for holidays under particular trade or industry agreement will apply where appropriate.

11. SICKNESS AND INJURY BENEFIT:

At the Company's discretion, non obligatory payments will be made to you during sickness absence or injury

- inform your manager immediately by telephone
- complete Employee Statement of Absence From Work if you are sick for 4, 5, 6, or 7 days (including weekends).
- provide a medical certificate from your illness lasts more than 7 days (including Saturdays, Sundays, and Statutory Public Holidays).
- send a medical certificate for each subsequent week of continued illness.

All sickness payments by the Company take into account Statutory Sick Pay (S.S.P) If you are excluded from S.S.P. but eligible for National Insurance benefit (N.I.B.) NCR will deduct the standard rate of N.I.B. from your pay. (In the case of married woman the benefit deducted will be that which they would receive if they were making full contributions). Payments will be based on a service related scale. Up to 3 months service allows a maximum payment of 2 weeks basic pay. Between 3-6 months service allows a maximum of 4 weeks basic pay. After 6 months service payments are related to length of service. Any entitlement in respect of continuous absence through sickness or injury will be subject to frequent review. A Personal Accident Insurance scheme covers employees in the event of personal injury whilst on Company business other than at their normal place of work or travelling between home and their normal place of work.

12. PENSION PLAN MEMBERSHIP

Membership to the NCR Pension Plan is a condition of employment for all full-time permanent employees provided you are not within five years of normal pension age. Full details of the Pension Plan are contained in the Pension Plan explanatory booklet.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

You will not, during your employment with the Company or at any time thereafter, without written permission of the Company, disclose to any person outside the Company, or to any person within the Company other than a person whose province it is to know the same, any information relating to the Company's business which is of a confidential nature or disclosure of which may damage the interests of the Company. Also you will not use for any purpose or for purposes other than those of the Company, any information which you may acquire relating to the Company's business. On termination of your employment you will deliver to the Company on your last working day (without keeping any copies) any documents or other media relating to the business of the Company.

14. OUTSIDE SUBMISSIONS

It is most important that the Company shall not be placed in a position of confidential trust or relationship with respect to any unsolicited disclosure of information received from anyone outside the Company. In order that all matters relating to outside submission of information may be handled in a legally correct manner, any idea or suggestion submitted to you by a customer or other third party concerning technical developments or products including software, should be forwarded by you unanswered to International Patents Department, Head Office.

Subject: Docket No. 9494.00

Enclosed is a patent application that has previously been reviewed by the inventor(s) and has been filed in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, including a Declaration and Power of Attorney and an Assignment that will require the signature of the inventor(s). As I discussed with you earlier, we are providing you with one set of the patent application for inventor(s) Ward, Macleod and Waller and two sets of the application for inventor Cudd.

With regard to this application we have enclosed for each inventor:

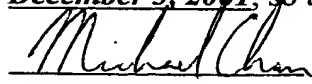

- (1) a copy of the associated drawings;
- (2) a copy of the specification, claims and Declaration and Power of Attorney; and
- (3) a copy of the Assignment papers by which said application is assigned to NCR Corporation

With regard to the Declaration and Power of Attorney, please have the inventor(s) review the application, and if satisfied, their name should be signed in the space(s) provided, exactly as it is typewritten. A space for the date of signing is also provided for each inventor to fill in when signing. Notarization is not required.

The Assignment paper should also be signed and dated the same day the Declaration and Power of Attorney is executed. Notarization is not required.

All stapled material should remain stapled for filing in the United States.

We have received a notice from the USPTO requiring us to complete this application by filing a copy of the application signed by the inventors. A limited time is provided for us to comply with this requirement. Accordingly, please return the executed documents to our office by December 3, 2001, so that we can comply with the USPTO requirement.
